

Board Policy No. 1 General Provisions

Summary

This policy establishes the purpose, responsibilities, and update process for this and other Board Policies and procedures. The North County Transit District Board of Directors (“Board”) will provide updates to existing Board Policies and direct staff in the development, adoption, and implementation of new Board Policies as necessary.

Offices and Location

Pursuant to Public Utilities Code § 125001, the name of this District is the “North County Transit District” (“NCTD”). The general administration office mailing address is 810 Mission Avenue, Oceanside, CA 92054.

Mission and Vision Statements

NCTD’s mission is to deliver safe, convenient, reliable, and user-friendly public transportation services.

NCTD’s vision is to provide an integrated transit system that enables our customers to travel easily and efficiently throughout the region.

Definitions

Board Policies: Policies adopted by the Board are established to guide the operation of the District. Previously known as “Policies” but renamed as “Board Policies,” all Board Policies may be found at gonctd.com/about-nctd/board-information/.

Adoption

Board Policies have been adopted pursuant to the provisions of the North County Transit District Act (Public Utilities Code § 125000, et. seq.). As set forth in Division 11.5 of the State of California Public Utilities Code, the Board is responsible for establishing general policies governing the operation of the District. The Board shall delegate to the Executive Director the authority to carry out Board Policies, as appropriate, and may request of the Executive Director reports regarding the administration and effectiveness of these Board Policies.

Severability

If any policy or portion of a policy contained within the Board Policies is in conflict with statutes, regulations, rules, or legislation having authority over NCTD, said statutes, regulations, rules, or legislation shall prevail. Further, the sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, and phrases in Board Policies are severable; and if any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of any of the Board Policies is declared unconstitutional or otherwise invalid by the valid judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, such unconstitutionality or invalidity, shall not affect any remaining sections, paragraphs, sentences, clauses, and phrases of the Board Policies.

Board Policy No. 1 – General Provision

Procedure

1. Board Committees, members of the Board, the Executive Director, General Counsel, and Division Chiefs may direct proposed Board Policies to the Board for formal consideration.
2. The initiating group or individual is responsible for drafting the respective proposed Board Policy for Board approval.
3. Proposed Board Policies will be submitted to the Executive Director and General Counsel for review and to the Board for action.
4. After the Board adopts or revises a Board Policy, the Clerk of the Board will post the new or revised Board Policy on GoNCTD.com.

Annual Review of Policies

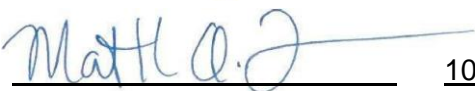

At least annually, staff may review and suggest revisions to existing Board Policies, as appropriate, and bring new Board Policies, if appropriate, to the Board for consideration and approval.
